

INVITATION TO BECOME A MEMBER OF ST PETERS QUARTER (BID) COMPANY

You are invited to become a member of St Peters Quarter Derby Ltd, the registered company limited by guarantee, which is charged with the responsibility for delivering the Business Improvement District Plan (2017-2022).

Membership of St Peters Quarter Derby Ltd is open and free to all St Peters Quarter Business Improvement District levy payers and offers you the opportunity to vote on all BID Company issues arising at the Annual General Meeting (AGM).

Who is entitled to become a BID member?

Only representatives from businesses in the St Peters Quarter BID area who are BID levy payers.

What does it mean to be a BID member?

Only registered members of St Peters Quarter Derby Limited (individuals representing a business levy payer) are entitled to attend AGMs and any other “members only” meetings. Each business is entitled to one member and one vote on matters affecting the BID on behalf of your business.

Other ways to become involved

Being a member of St Peters Quarter Derby Limited is not the only way to become involved in the BID. The BID actively encourages as many St Peters Quarter businesses as possible to get involved and influence the way in which the BID business plan is implemented by being a part of one of the working groups that cover the main project areas, or by contacting the St Peters Quarter BID Project Manager to offer your ideas and input.

Keeping in touch

We make every effort to keep you informed and up to date on matters affecting the St Peters Quarter and the work of the BID including the quarterly newsletters, weekly e-Bulletins, Twitter, Instagram and Facebook groups and regular visits from our Rangers. If you are not receiving information and would like to, please contact the St Peters Quarter BID Office on the details below.
